

1. Portrait and Biographical Album of Peoria County, Illinois. Containing Full Page Portraits and Biographical Sketches of Prominent and Representative Citizens of the County, Together with Portraits and Biographies of all the Presidents of the United States, and Governors of the State.

(Originally published in 1890, about 980 pages)

2. The History of Peoria, Illinois

(Originally published in 1870, about 260 pages)

Contents:

Chapter I. The geographical position of Peoria
Chapter II. Early history of Peoria
Chapter III. The subject continued. Lasalle, Hennepin, and Tonti
Chapter IV. The subject continued...
Chapter V. The ancient population
Chapter VI. The subject continued. Coles's report
Chapter VII. Ancient fortifications
Chapter VIII. Indian war. Gov. Edwards and Capt. Craig
Chapter IX. The subject continued. Gov. Reynold's account of it
Chapter X. The subject continued. Erection and destructions of Fort Clark
Chapter XI. The first American settlements at Peoria
Chapter XII. State of Illinois and Sundry counties, including Peoria, organized
Chapter XIII. County commissioners court and board of supervisors
Chapter XIV. The first circuit court. Trial of Nomaque, etc.
Chapter XV. The subject continued. Judge Young, Ford, etc.
Chapter XVI. Organization of the town of Peoria
Chapter XVII. City organization, taxation, etc.
Chapter XVIII. Public buildings
Chapter XIX. Schools by individuals and companies
Chapter XX. The present school system, commonly called free schools
Chapter XXI. Churches and religious societies
Chapter XXII. Manufactures. Foundries and machine-shops
Chapter XXIII. Manufactures. Blacksmiths and plow-makers
Chapter XXIV. Manufactures. Mills
Chapter XXV. Manufactures. Distilleries
Chapter XXVI. Miscellaneous manufactures
Chapter XXVII. Railroads
Chapter XXVIII. Lights
Chapter XXIX. Boating
Chapter XXX. Shade-trees, fruit-trees, and fruits
Chapter XXXI. Water
Chapter XXXII. Coal and stone
Chapter XXXIII. Ferries and bridges
Chapter XXXIV. Newspapers, etc.
Chapter XXXV. The French claims controversy
Chapter XXXVI. Population at different times
Chapter XXXVII. The old Settlers' Society
Chapter XXXVIII. Commerce of Peoria
Chapter XXXIX. The Fauna of Peoria
Chapter XL. The Flora of Peoria and its vicinity
Chapter XLI. Physicians
Chapter XLII. Lawyers
Chapter XLIII. The subject continued. John L Bogardus
Chapter XLV. Banking facilities
Index

3. The History of Peoria County, Illinois. Containing a History of the Northwest, History of Illinois, History of the County, its Early Settlement, Growth, Development, Resources, etc., etc., A Sketch of its Cities and Towns, their Improvements, Industries, Manufactories, Churches, Schools, etc., etc., a War Record of its Volunteers in the Late Rebellion, General and Local Statistics, Biographical Sketches, Portraits of Early Settlers and Prominent Men, Map of Peoria County, Constitution of the United States, Miscellaneous Matters, Tables, etc., etc.

(originally published in 1880, about 850 pages)

4. Reminiscences of Early Peoria – Including Indian Stories

I. Reminiscences of Early Peoria – Including Indian Stories	11
II. An Indian Murder	13
III. Frank Havener	15
IV. A Prophecy	16
V. The Indian and Baby Girl	17
VI. Lover`s Leap	18
VII. The Indian Gobbler	20
VIII. Planing Gardens	21
IX. Using the Land	22
X. Didn`t Have the boots	23
XI. Senachwine-Last Chief of the Pottawatomies	24
XII. Nee Nee Wah-A Legend of Peoria Lake	26
XIII. Story of Fort Clark	27
XIV. First Circus that Came to Peoria	31
XV. Daniel Prince – The Bite of a Rattlesnake	33
XVI. The Meteor Storm	35
XVII. Old Prairie trails	36
XVIII. Song of an Indian Mother	38
XIX. Ode on a Pair of Old Andirons by Ruth Elisabeth Perkins	39
XX. The Black Hawk War	41
XXI. Shabbona –“Friend of the White Man”	43
XXII. Mother of Pieneers (A Poem)	47
XXIII. A Retrospect	49
XXIV. Significant Dates in Early Peoria History	50
XXV. “Our State” (A Poem)	51
XXVI. Question on “Our State)	55
XXVII. Abstract of Title for State of Illinois	57