

French Peoria and the Illinois Coutry 1673 – 1846

Judith A. Franke

Introduction		1
Chapter
I. First Encounters: The French in the Illinois Country in the Late 1600s		9
Louis Jolliet and Jacques Marquette
Robert Cavelier, Sieur de La Salle
II. The Franch and Indians at Peoria –	1691 to 1763	17
The Legacy of La Salle		17
Henri de Tonti
Cultures in Conflict – Peoria in 1694		22
Jacques Gravier
Marie Rouensa
Pierre Delliette
The People the French Encountered		30
Fort St. Louis (Old Fort and Village) –	1691 to 1763	32
III. The French Villages at Peoria –	1763 to 1846	35
The Old Fort and Village –	1763 to 1796	35
Lean-Baptise Point Du Sable
Louis Chatellereau
John-Baptiste Maillet and the American Revolution		41
The New Fort and Village -	1778 to 1812	44
The End of the French Villages		46
Adeline La Croix Chandler
The French Trading House -	1818 to 1846	54
Louis Buisson
Appendices
I. The Land the French Encountered		56
II. The Fur Trade in the Illinois Country		59
III. Buildings and Towns in the Illinois Country		62
IV. The Archaeological Evidence		66
The 1673 Peoria Village		66
The Peoria Sites		67
The French Fort at the Rock
The Indian Village
The Newell Fort
The Mysery of Fort Crèvecoeur		73
Why Was It Called “Crèvecoeur”?
Where Was It Built?
What Became of the Fort?
V. French Peoria on the Map -	1673 to 1755	77
VI. Events at French Peoria -	1673 to 1846	85
VII. The Inhabitants of French Peoria (Ernest E. East)		97
Dwellers in Old Peoria	1765 to 1796
Dwellers in the New Village	1778 to 1812
Trading House	After 1812
Selected Bibliography		107
Index		117